Fears over emergency ambulance provision

Bid to pot lots of charity cash

SNOOKER players are being asked to chalk up their cues and names for a special charity tournament in memory of a brave 14-year-old girl who lost her battle against cancer. The Maggie Vale Memorial Snooker Tournament will take place at Haverhill Snooker and Bowl in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, on Sunday, January 25, from 12 noon. Jamie Pawley, who runs the club, said all proceeds would be for CLIC Sargent, the children's cancer charity. See Story – Page 3.

FEARS that Haverhill and its villages are being left without emergency cover have been raised with the East Anglian Ambulance Service.

Town councillor Margaret Marks says she has been told the Haverhill ambulance was being moved to stand-by in Cambridge to help meet emergency targets.

Cllr Marks has now written to Oskan Edwardson, executive director of operations, raising her concerns.

She has been told ambulances were being moved into areas with the greatest number of people to increase the chance of achieving eight-minute response targets for emergencies.

Cllr Marks wrote: "I am told that the Haverhill ambulance is moved to stand-by in Cambridge even when there are sufficient ambulances already deployed in that area, leaving Haverhill and the surrounding rural areas completely devoid of ambulance cover. "I am at a loss to understand how any rational body could arrive at a decision to implement a scheme based on response times when there are so many variable elements outside of the control of the crew."

Neil Storey, associate director of accident and emergency for the East of England Ambulance Service, said: "I would like to reassure people in the Haverhill area that we are committed to providing a high quality service. We use dynamic deployment to place ambulances within a six minute drive zone of the majority of calls within the area to ensure the timeliest response to patients."

While he admitted that the full-time ambulance might be deployed, there was also a weekday community paramedic based in a car which was not moved from the local area unless on an emergency call. Negotiations were taking place to try to increase these hours.

He also pointed out that Haverhill had a community responder scheme.

Slimmers gain pounds for our hospice appeal

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A CLUB used by slimmers has handed over a £136 donation to our St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal and members are inviting others to join them in a sponsored effort to help boost it further.

The committee of the Mount Pleasant Club in Withersfield Road, Haverhill, organised a table sale before Christmas and Haverhill Slimming World Club organiser Julie Collis got her employer, Sainsbury's, to match the amount raised.

So far we have raised a bumper £30,000 towards our £40,000 appeal target to help pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes, rather than having to travel to the hospice in Bury St Edmunds.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for the hospice, thanked the slimmers for their valuable contribution and encouraged others to follow their lead by either shedding pounds or giving up smoking to raise sponsorship money.

Ian said: "We are very grateful to the Mount Pleasant Club, Slimming World members and to Sainsbury's for supporting us again. I am going to take them some sponsor forms along and if anyone else wants to join in they can contact me. We will be doing this for a three month period, ending in March and we will provide people with a pack which gives tips on either losing weight or giving up smoking. We try to support them rather than just leave them to it. It is a great way to get fit for 2009 and raise some money for a good cause at the same time."

Julie, who runs classes at the Mount Pleasant Club every Tuesday at 10am, 6pm and 7.30pm, said: "We wanted to support the appeal because it is such a good cause. Travelling to Bury is always a nightmare, especially at this time of year when it is icy. This is supporting the Haverhill area and I think it is wonderful. I am sure there will be some people who want to take part and it does help to lose weight for a good cause."

Anyone interested in supporting the effort can contact Ian on (01284) 747613, or for information on Slimming World classes contact Julie on (01440) 7708673.

How can you help us hit the £40,000 target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal. Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause? A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Drop in county road deaths

ROAD deaths in Suffolk fell to a 10 year low last year but the number of serious injuries rose sharply.

In total 31 people were killed on Suffolk's roads in 2008, with 333 being seriously injured and around 2,300 slightly injured.

The number of people seriously injured is a 26 per cent increase compared to 2007, although around 200 fewer people were slightly injured compared to 2007.

County Councillor Guy McGregor, portfolio holder for roads and transport and chair of the Suffolk Roadsafe Partnership Board, said "While I am extremely pleased to see the number of people dying on Suffolk roads decrease, I am disappointed to see the rise in serious injuries in 2008, especially as serious collisions have been decreasing for the last four years.

"There appears to be a significant increase in motorcycle casualties. This may be due to the surge in fuel prices late last year. It is reported that novice riders have been buying small cheap motorcycles in large numbers and using them for commuting trips. In response we will need to continue our motorcycle safety campaigns, training and enforcement."

The Suffolk Roadsafe Partnership Board has worked closely over the past year to try to reduce collisions. Last December it approved an action plan for 2009 and 2010, dealing with all types of road users and all age groups.

House price falls largest in England

HOUSE prices in East Anglia fell faster than the rest of the country in 2008, according to a new report by the Nationwide, and Suffolk was among the counties worst hit.

The annual rate of falling prices reached 16.6 per cent by the final quarter – the largest fall for any English region – leaving the average price at £153,080.

Suffolk fell further than Cambridgeshire's 13 per cent drop, to rack up a 16 per cent fall and an average price of £168,577. Fionnuala Earley, Nationwide's chief economist, said: "2008 has been a difficult year for the housing market."

John Pocock, managing director of Pocock and Shaw – which has offices in Cambridge and an associated office in Suffolk, said he felt the Nationwide report was "for the first time" a true reflection of the state of the housing market.

But he added: "It's extremely difficult to generalise as some properties are in greater demand."

Film's easy return

A FILM adaptation of Noel Coward's comedy Easy Virtue is returning to the region where it was filmed to hit screens in Haverhill this week.

Starring Jessica Biel, Ben Barnes and Kristin Scott-Thomas, it was filmed partly at Wimpole Hall.

It will be screened at Haverhill Arts Centre's cinema on Monday, January 12, at 1.30pm, with evening showings on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 7.30pm.

Banknote forgery

A MAN who admitted making a counterfeit banknote will return to court next month for sentencing.

Ricky Stuart, 44, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on Wednesday.

Stuart, of Arundel Road, Haverhill, admitted at an earlier hearing making a counterfeit currency note on June 28. He was given unconditional bail until his next court appearance.

Chemical attack

A CORROSIVE liquid was poured over a maroon Ford Mondeo in a car park at Haverhill over the New Year. The damage was caused at Cavendish Court between 11am and 1.30pm on January 2.

Anyone with information about the incident is asked to call Pc Carl Brandwood at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Oil stolen – slowly

SMALL quantities of heating oil have been slowly stolen from a tank at the back of a house in Poslingford.

The thefts happened at Stansfield Road, between December 6 last year and Monday. Anyone with any information should call police on (01284) 774100.

Window smashed

A WINDOW was broken at a house on New Year's Day. The damage was reported at Exeter Court, Haverhill, at around 5pm.

Police are appealing for information. Call (01284) 774100.

■ NEW CHAPTER . . . Sanphra Willmott, the new manager of Haverhill Library.

Picture: Keith Jones 529419.

Fewer frocks more fiction for Sanphra

SANPHRA Willmott has swapped selling dresses for studious silence to become one of Suffolk's youngest library managers.

The then Top Shop manageress saw a job advertised as assistant manager at Haverhill Library two years ago.

And now she has taken over as its manager after Madeleine Tuck retired after more than 20 years at the Camps Road library.

Sanphra, 29, who lives in Bury St Edmunds, said she had always enjoyed time spent in libraries and record offices while studying for her degree in English and History at Anglia Ruskin University.

She says her first priority is to get the library fully staffed and then to raise its profile and increase the number of community events held there.

She said: "I find it a lot more rewarding, no two days are the same and I learn something new every day here. I look forward to coming to work every morning."

She added: "My brief is to promote the library to the wider community and to increase footfall."

"Attracting teenagers is always difficult, they don't really want to study here so we try to entertain them. We have just started renting out Playstation Wii games and premier DVDs, so it is not just books."

And the library is attracting little bookworms with Baby Bounce, Tot Rock and Sunday craft activities, as well as more mature readers with Top Time sessions for senior citizens on Wednesdays from 10.30am to 12 noon beginning on January 21, to reach out to vulnerable and isolated people who want something to do.

Sanphra added: "I'd also like to introduce a book group, but it has got to be what people want to see here so people need to let me know."

Down with the old, up with the new . . .

■ COMING DOWN . . . demolition work begins at the site of Haverhill's new Tesco.

Picture: Keith Jones 529199.

TWO major landmarks of Haverhill's past are making way for a new one.

The former station yard site, which closed in 1965, is being cleared to make way for a Tesco store which is due to open next year creating up to 500 jobs.

Most of the old station buildings had already been demolished, but workmen have started to dismantle the substantial mill next to The Pigtle main road through the centre of the town, in a process that could cause traffic disruption for the next 28 weeks.

Founded in the 1870s by Frederick Taylor, the business was taken over by the Hovis company in 1936, which put up the current structure.

It was a major town industry working around the clock milling flour during the war years, but ceased production in 1949 to concentrate on animal feeds, finally closing for good in 1977.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

It was used as a builder's merchants until Tesco took over.

The town's former police station and court house buildings at the entrance to the site have also been demolished.

Michael Kissman, corporate affairs director for Tesco, said: "We are excited to have started work on the site and are keen to open as soon as possible."

The new store represents a multi-million pound investment in Haverhill, with a mix of full and part-time jobs. Construction work is expected to take a year.

The Pigtle will be closed to through traffic, making it an access road only for residents and businesses in Queens Square.

A spokesman for St Edmundsbury Borough Council said some traffic disruption is likely. Traffic lights are likely to be in use from next week.

Snooker players cue up for charity

SNOOKER players are cueing up for a charity tournament in memory of a teenager who lost her battle against cancer.

Members of Haverhill Snooker Club will each pay £5 to play the Maggie Vale Memorial Tournament on January 25 in honour of the 14 year old, from Birdbrook, who died in October.

The competition will raise cash for children's cancer charity CLIC Sargent.

Jamie Pauley, who runs the club in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, decided to hold the event to help Maggie's father, John, a keen snooker player, who is running the London Marathon this year for the charity.

He said: "John has been coming down here for years and is a member of our team which plays in the Cambridgeshire league."

"We thought it would be nice to do something in memory of his daughter and we hope to get as many people as possible to play so that we can raise as much money as possible for the charity."

John, who has played at the club since it opened in 1985, said: "I think it is really great that they are doing this tournament for Maggie, the more money we can raise for the charity the better. It is open to everyone and we hope to get as many people as possible to play."

To enter the competition, call Mr Pauley on (01440) 707774.

Charity superstars meet movie look-alikes in a year of contrasts

JANUARY

THE year began in Haverhill with a campaign to save the town's Chalkstone, Castle Hill and Parkway Middle Schools, as well as Clare Middle, despite the recommendation of Suffolk County Council's Schools Review that they should be closed.

Police patrols were stepped up after a woman was attacked on a footpath on the Chalkstone estate in the early hours of the morning, following earlier reports of two attempted handbag snatchings. A jobless man dubbed 'the Bookie Blagger' following a series of armed robberies at book makers shops, including three in Haverhill, was arrested after a dawn raid on his home in Borehamwood, Hertfordshire. Tributes were paid to Haverhill Town Mayor Ted Trebble, who died at the age of 66, after recovering from a stroke he suffered in June 2007.

FEBRUARY

THE Weekly News launched its £40,000 St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes rather than having to travel to the Hospice in Bury St Edmunds. Haverhill Chamber of Commerce donated £1,700 raised at its first Business Awards event to get the appeal started and offers of help have flooded in ever since. Tesco revealed plans for its new store at the former Station Yard site in Haverhill, an innovative design with a 40ft tower which could have a restaurant on top. The store is expected to create up to 500 jobs when it opens next year. St Edmundsbury Borough Council was voted the best in the country, with an 'excellent' rating from Audit Commission inspectors.

MARCH

SPRING saw pupils from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College return from a 'trip of a lifetime' to the United States and news that up to 900 new jobs would be created in the town during the year with the opening of the new cinema and other developments. A campaign was launched to save the post office at Strassbourg Square in Haverhill and views were sought on where 7,500 new homes should be put in St Edmundsbury over the next 20 years.

APRIL

IN APRIL St Edmundsbury Borough councillors backed the idea of a single unitary authority for west Suffolk rather than one for the whole of Suffolk and said it would give Haverhill a greater voice. A three-day continental market visited Haverhill and was voted a great success. A row broke out about the massive £220,000 salary paid to Suffolk County Council's new Chief Executive Andrea Hill dubbed "obscene" by taxpayers' rights groups. Plans for a new £800,000 walk-in health clinic for Haverhill, to be open from 8am to 8pm seven days a week, received mixed reactions, with some saying the town was crying out for such facilities and others that the money should be invested in existing doctor's surgeries.

MAY

A TOWN centre alcohol ban came into effect in Haverhill, making it an offence to drink alcohol in certain designated areas and unhappy Queen Street traders said unsightly traffic signs were putting off shoppers who thought the road was closed completely. Haverhill Chamber of Commerce hosted its second Business Awards, organised in association with the Weekly News, at a Gala Ball at Chifford Hall, Linton. Work started on a new £1 million high tech veterinary surgery at Homefield Road, Haverhill.

JUNE

DR HARI Mohan said goodbye to his patients after 30 years at the Christmas Maltings Surgery in Haverhill and language classes began to help Polish and Portuguese workers to communicate more easily. Haverhill Leisure Centre closed for a £5.2 million year long refurbishment and a temporary Pod building opened to house fitness equipment.

JULY

THE Haverhill Show, organised in association with the Weekly News, went ahead as a tribute to Reg Weller, who died last year aged 91 after entertaining crowds at the show with his rope spinning tricks until he was 86. Campaigners called for an urgent summit on the A1307 after the road claimed its sixth death of the year.

AUGUST

IN AUGUST our Hospice at Home Appeal hit the halfway mark, with the final £4,000 donated from the Haverhill Charity Golf Classic in June. The Thurlow and Haverhill Steam Rally and Country show was held in memory of Don Loveday, its main organiser for many years, who died last year. Haverhill's new £1.4 million 'green' council depot was opened at Homefield Road.

SEPTEMBER

IT WAS announced that the number of police Safer Neighbourhood teams for Haverhill would be reduced and new Inspector Andy Mason arrived in the town. It was also announced that Haverhill's new health clinic would be based in temporary buildings in the car park off Withersfield Road for up to four years until a permanent building is provided.

OCTOBER

HAVERHILL'S new five-screen Cineworld cinema was opened by DJ Pat Sharp, who broadcast his Q'103 radio show from the foyer. Bookie Blagger Nicholas Smith was jailed for 12 years after admitting armed robberies in Haverhill, Cambridge and elsewhere. Haverhill Ladies Circle handed over a computer Wii system to pensioners at Haverhill Day Centre.

A SYNDICATE of 23 workers for Havebury Housing in Haverhill scooped £2.6 million on the National Lottery and the Weekly News' Hospice at Home Appeal hit £30,000. Plans to create a new £2 million community football centre were given the go-ahead by planners.

DECEMBER

PLANS for a temporary health clinic in a car park off Withersfield Road were approved, despite strong objections from those worried about parking problems, and the town's first Great Big Christmas weekend was voted a great success. A total of £3,000, raised at this year's Haverhill Show, was handed over to good causes LAMPH and the Gateway Club.

Honours for young gardeners

GREEN-FINGERED youngsters have been honoured for creating inspirational gardens at their schools.

The Haverhill in Bloom committee handed out three awards to schoolchildren, who have worked hard to make their town greener by planting their own green spaces.

Children at Burton End School picked up the prize for 'best use of space' for its small school garden, while Coupals Primary School won the award for 'best vegetable production'. Each school picked up £50 for their achievements.

The overall winner was Place Farm Primary School, which picked up the best garden prize and a cheque for £100.

Haverhill in Bloom committee member Ben Pumpfrey said: "The gardens were excellent this year."

"Burton End created an ideal garden in a very small space, while Coupals grew some amazing runner beans, as well as collecting nearly £500 for local charities."

"Place Farm yet again had a tremendous garden and was a worthy winner."

Spate of scooter thefts linked

THREE scooters have been stolen from outside homes in Haverhill, and police are linking the crimes.

The first vehicle, an orange and black Kymco scooter, was taken from a driveway at Woodcock Close between 9pm on New Year's Eve and 9.10am on January 1.

The number plate was discarded nearby, and the bike was later found alight close to Haverhill cemetery. The next bike, a silver and black Rhon, was snatched from outside a property at Ovington Place between 7.30pm and 8.15pm on New Year's Eve.

Three youths were spotted with it on Chalkstone Way, and they abandoned it. A third scooter was stolen from a garden at Burton End between 5pm on Friday, January 2, and 10am the next day.

The black and silver Piaggio Vivasity scooter, licence plate JLR152, has not yet been recovered.

Anyone with information about the spate of thefts is asked to call Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Gifts amnesty unwrapped

A CHARITY is staging an unwanted gifts amnesty and promises to convert donated items into hours of care.

A recent survey has shown that 54 per cent of people received an unwanted gift at Christmas 2007, and 37 per cent decided to give them to charity shops.

People facing such a dilemma are asked to think about donating them to Sue Ryder Care at one of its 370 shops.

Families celebrate New Year births

■ 'NEW BEGINNING' ... Kelly and Michael David with baby Holly.

Picture: Keith Heppell 528795.

AN EXHAUSTED group of special families saw in the New Year with a new baby. First to arrive at Cambridge's Rosie Maternity Hospital after midnight was baby Holly David at 1.27am, weighing in at 7lb 10oz.

And her proud dad Michael, 41, of Western Colville, near Linton, even predicted her birth date.

Mum Kelly, 29, said: "We were just getting ready to go to the pub at about 8pm. I am glad it didn't happen an hour later or we would have been in the pub."

Michael said: "I predicted she would be born on New Year's Day. New year, new baby, new beginning."

At 3.07am Albie Baddeley was born weighing 8lb 4oz. Dad Mark, 35, of Ivan Clarke Corner, Little Abington, who runs a body piercing salon in Harlow, Essex, with new mum Zoe Ellis, 36, was delighted – but exhausted. He said: "I haven't slept for four days. Zoe deserves a medal."

Meanwhile, Austrian Elke Papp, 35, of Victoria Road, Cambridge gave birth to baby boy Tibor, who weighed 7lb 15oz, at 6.50am.

Her husband, Dr Martin Fiedlechner, 35, is doing research in bio-technology at Cambridge University.

Performance artist Elke, who has another son, 18-month-old Bebe, said: "He was due on January 5 but I had to have an emergency caesarean."

"We were at a New Year's Eve party and I managed to celebrate at midnight but was rushed into hospital after waking in the night with contractions. I am very happy now."

Trio's fury at boundary snub

A THREE council alliance has accused the Boundary Committee of being "bad for democracy" after it refused to hold public consultation on the group's proposals for a three-unitary authority structure.

The commission wrote to the alliance, led by St Edmundsbury council leader John Griffiths, and his Forest Heath and Waveney colleagues, confirming that no further consultation will be considered despite their view that their suggestion had "suffered from a clear and irrefutable deficit" of fair treatment.

They said: "We told the committee that our proposal has not been afforded anything like the same degree of consideration as that given to the unwieldy and undemocratic Suffolk Rural and One Suffolk options and yet it appears they couldn't care less."

"What clearer evidence could there be of an unjust process which, by not considering all options, is clearly not giving local people a chance to have their say?"

The leaders believe that the attitude of the Boundary Committee runs contrary to the wishes of the very Government it professes to serve.

They said: "The Government's 'Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction' Bill introduced in this year's Queen's Speech seeks to impose a duty on councils to promote participation in local democracy and yet the attitude of the committee is bad for local government and bad for democracy."

"How can a process being used to determine the future democratic structure for Suffolk do anything but alienate voters if at the outset it refuses them the opportunity of all the options? We are very angry and believe this is further evidence of a hugely flawed process."

Council opposes homes proposal

TOWN council planners have objected to an application to build five new homes in Haverhill, close to a major new roundabout leading to a new supermarket.

MH Developments has applied to build five two storey homes, a single garage, associated parking, alterations and improvements to the access road at land to the rear of 17-35 Wrattling Road.

But Haverhill Town Council objects to the plan because of members' concerns about the access arrangements and increased traffic on to Wrattling Road, particularly given its proximity to the new roundabout for the Tesco store which is being built on the former Station Yard site.

Councillors also raised concerns about disruption to existing residents during the construction period as work would hamper them getting in and out of the back of their properties, and dismissed the firm's offer to limit construction vehicle access.

The planning committee's report concluded: "The town council does not feel the developer has overcome objections from residents arising from the original application."

Cash clinics for charities

FINANCIAL help is being offered to voluntary groups keen to work with children and young people.

A £6,971 grant from the West Suffolk Local Strategic Partnership to Youth Action in West Suffolk (YAWS) is paying for monthly funding surgeries in Newmarket and Bury St Edmunds.

Groups can use them to book time with advisers for help with project ideas and grant applications.

Hazel Pidsley, from the Bury St Edmunds Volunteer Centre, said: "We know that there are existing and new groups out there who want to work with children and young people and the young people are crying out for their help."

"This money will enable us sit down with these groups and work out their plans."

Prison practice to run health centre

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE winning bid to run a controversial new health centre at Haverhill, which is due to open in April, has been announced.

NHS Suffolk has revealed that The Practice Plc, which currently provides services to two Suffolk prisons, will operate the town's new GP-led Crown Health Centre.

The facility will be sited in a temporary building in a car park for up to four years until a permanent location is found, despite strong local protests about the impact on parking.

Town GPs were also up in arms over a £300,000 cut to their budgets over three years, which coincides with the new centre, and their protests were supported by a 10,000 signature petition.

Opponents argue that the money allocated to the new health centre would be better spent improving existing medical facilities, and question why the centre is not bringing any new X-ray or diagnostic services to the town.

Debbie Raven, chief operating officer at The Practice, said "working with the healthcare community rather than in competition will be key to the centre's success" and added: "We will continue to work with Haverhill GPs to ensure full integration of the new centre with existing services in the area."

She added: "We have established a project board, and we're delighted that Dr Andrew Cornish, a GP in the area, will become our local medical director."

The new Crown Health Centre will open seven days a week between 8am and 8pm.

It will care for both registered and non-registered patients from Haverhill and the surrounding area and will offer appointments alongside a walk-in service.

Patients will be able to access a wide range of services at the centre, including a minor injuries clinic and blood testing service, along with clinics for substance and alcohol misuse, weight management, quitting smoking, sexual health, contraception and childhood obesity.

Martin Royal, director of business development at NHS Suffolk said: "This will be an excellent healthcare facility for the people of Haverhill and the surrounding area."

"We're very pleased by this development – it's the result of an intense period of working closely with St Edmundsbury Borough Council and the local community."

The first services will open from April 1 and will be located in temporary facilities on Withersfield Road.

Planning is underway to secure a permanent home for the centre, which could involve a purpose-built building or a refurbished facility located centrally in Haverhill.

Building community

A BUILDERS' merchant laid the foundations for a happier new year by helping over 400 community projects in 2008.

Staff at Travis Perkins, Haverhill, helped the Linton Village College Community Café project, for 13-16 year olds, by painting and decorating the site and helping students gain food hygiene certificates so they could serve in the café.

More than 540 projects have now been completed by the company nationwide.

David Manning, its internal communications manager, said: "It's fantastic to see the teams putting a smile back on faces amid the doom and gloom of recession."

Rights warning for bargain hunters

SALES shoppers are being urged to know their rights by trading standards officers.

A spokesman said shoppers had the same legal rights whether it was sale time or not and, urging people to keep receipts, added: "Bargain hunters are bombarded by offers of goods at a fraction of usual prices. Trading Standards warn that it pays to shop with your eyes wide open – not all offers are what they seem."

Woolies shuts up shop – 50 jobs go

BY Jack Grove

editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE final few branches of Woolworths shut up shop for good this week.

Stores in Haverhill and Saffron Walden were the last to go in the region on Tuesday – with a combined loss of 50 jobs – following closures in Ely, Huntingdon and Royston.

It brings to an end a massive clearance sale, which even saw the stores' fixtures and fittings sold at bargain prices, but also left 27,000 employees out of work across the country.

Haverhill mayor Cllr Les Ager said: "It's very sad to see any business closing, but it's particularly bad when it's a massive high street store such as Woolworths.

"It's terrible for all the staff losing their jobs, but unfortunately it's not just happening in Haverhill, there are redundancies and closures everywhere.

"It's going to be a tough year for business, but I hope something else will turn up to replace Woolworths in Haverhill."

The firm's 807 stores have been closing in tranches throughout the final weeks of December and the start of January after selling off stock, fixtures and fittings at discount prices.

The final 200 had been due to close on Monday but administrator Deloitte gave the chain a brief reprieve to shift remaining stock and allow final arrangements to be made.

The remaining Woolies stores made for a grim shopping experience in the final few days of trading as workmen ripped out fixtures as customers picked over bargains.

Jeremy Rose, spokesman for Saffron Walden Business Forum, said: "It's a very sad day. The high street will look very drab and dreary without Woolworths, which was still a big draw for many shoppers, especially at weekends."

Burn's Night fun

A CHANCE to dispel the gloom of winter and financial worries is on offer at a Supper Concert for Burn's Night at Kedington.

The event on Saturday, January 24, at the Kedington Community Centre is in aid of the St Peter and Paul's Church Loo Appeal and organisers say it will feature "fine food", "good company" and "glorious music".

It will follow the same pattern as the previous concert for St David Day, but this time patrons will tuck in to a supper of haggis, bashed neeps and tatties while listening to the St Edmundsbury Male Voice Choir, and brass quintet TUBE.

For table bookings call Tony Farr on (01440) 704179.

Car stolen

A WHITE Audi TT car was stolen from a driveway at Haverhill.

The vehicle, with the number plate SF56 PRF, was taken from Bellings Road between 8.30pm on Tuesday, January 2, and 10.30am the next day.

Police are appealing for information. Call Pc Richard Oldroyd at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Knighthood for NHS boss

A HEALTH boss has been knighted in the Queen's New Year's Honours list.

Neil McKay, chief executive of the Cambridge-based East of England Strategic Health Authority (SHA), was honoured for his services to the NHS.

Colleagues paid tribute to his leadership in turning a multi-million pound deficit among the region's NHS trusts into a surplus, and his focus on cutting rates of hospital superbug infection rates such as MRSA and Clostridium difficile.

The SHA, which has its headquarters at Victoria House in Fulbourn, defines its role as providing "strategic leadership" for NHS trusts across the East.

Sir Neil said: "I am thrilled to receive this honour on behalf of the 125,000 NHS staff in the region and the thousands of volunteers and carers who make this service work for our 5.6 million population every day of the year."

"I am committed to delivering the best NHS

in the country to the people of the East of England."

Dr Robert Winter, the SHA's medical director, was made an OBE. Dr Winter, a former medical director at Addenbrooke's Hospital, was recognised for his work on the SHA's vision for the future of the NHS in the East, Towards the Best, Together.

Alice Zeitlyn, 85, who has taught about 75 people Braille in the city over more than two decades, was made an MBE for her service to the community.

Much of this work has been done through

Big haul of honours for region's high achievers

the Cam Sight group, helping blind or partially-sighted people to read or training people who work with the blind.

Mrs Zeitlyn, who has lived in Cambridge since 1957, also set up the B B Zeitlyn Psychotherapy Training Fund in 1980 in memory of her husband Bernard, who died in a bike accident the previous year.

He was a consultant psychiatrist at Addenbrooke's Hospital and the organisation makes interest-free loans to trainee psychoanalysts in East Anglia.

Andrew Hutchinson, executive principal of the Parkside Federation, has been made an OBE for services to education.

The group runs Parkside and Coleridge community colleges in Cambridge, and earlier this month was chosen to run the new secondary school to be built at Clay Farm, Trumpington.

Marshall Aerospace's chief operating officer Grahame Nix is flying high after being made an OBE for services to the defence industry.

Mr Rix, 50, of The Missions, Waterbeach, joined Marshall of Cambridge in 1980 and in 1995 was made director of Marshall Aerospace with overall responsibility for production.

When Dawn Chapman was appointed a nurse consultant at Addenbrooke's Hospital in 2006, she said she had "achieved what I've always wanted to" – but now she can add an MBE for services to breast cancer care to her list of accolades.

Victoria Pendleton, a member of Mildenhall Cycling Club, who won a gold medal at the Beijing Olympics, has been made an MBE. She was first in the women's sprint.

Tom James, an Olympic gold medal winner and former Cambridge University Boat Club president, has been made an MBE. He was a member of the men's coxless four who edged past their Australian rivals to take gold for Great Britain at Beijing.

Dr Michael Schluter, who gave up a career as a high-flying economist to campaign for Christian values and the importance of relationships, has been made a CBE for his efforts.

The 61 year old works with Cambridge's Jubilee Centre, and the Relationships Foundation, which is based on Hooper Street.

Professor Marcial Echenique has been made an OBE for services to urban and regional planning.

An international expert, he has been Professor of Land Use and Transport Studies at Cambridge University since 1993 and head of the Department of Architecture since 2004. The Chilean-born professor is a Fellow of Churchill College, Cambridge. He is also a director of Cambridge Futures.

Olivia Serena Oxley, known as Serena, has been made an MBE for services to injured jockeys. She lives in Gazeley and worked for the Newmarket-based Injured Jockeys Fund which has helped more than 1,000 jockeys.

Dr Robert Mulvaney, a glaciologist studying climate change at the British Antarctic Survey in Cambridge, has been made an OBE for services to science.

John Drayton, quarry manager at Cemex in Barrington, has been made an MBE for services to the quarry industry and geology.

Mr Drayton, who started at the Barrington plant in 1970 as a carpenter, was recognised for helping to make geology accessible to the public. He opened up the plant to students and school parties, and gives talks.

Mary Cooper has been made an MBE for voluntary services to international students in Cambridge.

Peter Hugh Nolan, 59, Sinyi Professor at the Judge Business School in Cambridge, is made a CBE "for services supporting British business in China and China's integration into the global economy". David Kynaston, the former head of Pye Unicam in Cambridge, is made an OBE for services to the electronics industry. In his 60s, he has been managing director of Philips' Elcoma Group, and of the UK's Mullard.

Former Cambridge News journalist Boni Sones, 54, of Fair Street, Cambridge, is made an OBE for services to

COLLEGE

West Suffolk College. Bury St Edmunds is celebrating the success of students who have gone on to further or higher education, gained employment or stayed on at College after studying there in 2007-08.

While A-Level students have one day in August to celebrate their results, College students get their advanced level results over a longer period of time so their achievements often go unnoticed.

The College principal Dr Ann Williams said: "West Suffolk College is very proud to be contributing to the growth in undergraduates and thus helping to upskill the nation's workforce at degree level. This year, 253 College students have embarked on degree courses.

"It is always exciting for me to review the destinations of our students going on to higher education. I am always really impressed by the wide range of courses we are preparing students for. These include Architecture, Music Technology, Law, Forensic Science, Social Work and many more.

"Although a large number of students are choosing to stay locally, going to University Campus Suffolk (UCS), Anglia Ruskin University and the University of East Anglia (UEA), we are sending our students all over the UK as far afield as Glasgow Caledonian, Aberystwyth and the University of London, to highlight only three of the fifty-three recipient universities this year."

West Suffolk College attracts people from diverse backgrounds, of all ages and abilities. Learners include professionals taking a qualification to help them further their career, people who are returning to work or making a career change, adults learning skills for life and young people taking the next step in their learning curve.

They all take a tremendous pride and satisfaction in having achieved a qualification, at whatever level.

Destination statistics:

Of West Suffolk College's 2007-08 full-time students, 26 per cent have progressed to employment and 22 per cent have progressed to university or other Higher Education courses. Of the remainder, 11 per cent are continuing with the same College course at the next level, while 21 per cent have progressed to another programme of study at the College. Ten per cent are enjoying a gap year or other unpaid activity and 7 per cent are actively seeking employment.

661 students were studying on a level 3 course (A Level equivalent). Of these, 47 per cent have progressed to Higher Education and 28 per cent to employment.

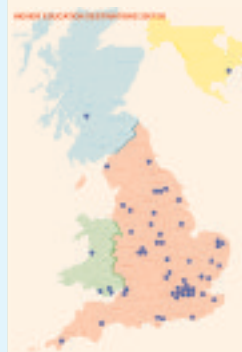

Full details of destination universities and courses studied are on our website.

Change of beat for officers

HAVERHILL'S beat has a new district police commander.

Chief Inspector Martin Barnes-Smith takes on the responsibility for St Edmundsbury after he swapped roles with another senior officer – Chief Inspector Mike Bacon – who will take up Mr Barnes-Smith's old role in charge of roads policing, air and operational support.

Mr Barnes-Smith has lived in Suffolk for 25 years after moving to the area two years after joining the police.

The Bury St Edmunds resident said: "I feel I'm very much part of the community. I'm taking over a high-performing district and will work hard to keep it that way.

He added: "I believe everybody, whether they live, work or are just visiting the area, should be allowed to go about their day-to-day business without it being spoiled by the minority intent on committing crime or anti-social behaviour.

"I look forward to taking up my post and meeting the people of West Suffolk."

Praising his excellent staff, Mr Bacon said he had "thoroughly enjoyed" his three years in command at St Edmundsbury and added: "I'm looking forward to my new role and wish Chief Inspector Barnes-Smith the best of luck."

Empty fire centre is costing £85k a month

BY Chris Havergal

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TAXPAYERS are footing a £85,000-a-month bill for Cambridge's new fire control centre – even though it won't be used until 2011.

The building in Waterbeach was meant to be handling 999 calls from across East Anglia by now but it is still being fitted out.

Problems with computer systems saw the latest estimated opening date pushed back from May 2011 to August and it is not expected to be fully operational until the end of 2011.

Now the Government has admitted it is spending £85,000 every month on leasing, maintenance and 24-hour security for the building at the Cambridge Research Park.

Kevin Napier, the Fire Brigades Union (FBU) regional secretary, said: "The taxpayers of Cambridgeshire are going to have to foot the bill for this. We don't know if the systems going into this building work and probably won't know until it's too late to change, so the Government is playing with people's lives.

"We are now in the position where we don't know how much this is going to cost and how much the taxpayer is going to have to pay."

Even if the monthly figure stayed the same until the expected opening, £1.6 million would still have been spent on running costs up to that date.

The union says the national cost of keeping new fire control centre buildings is £750,000 a month.

Earlier this month, it was revealed that the nationwide scheme to replace 46 buildings with nine regional hubs was set to cost £20 million more than the expected figure of £360 million.

A spokeswoman for the Department for Communities and Local Government said: "New regional control centre buildings are not standing idle."

"They are being fitted out with IT and other equipment, being used for developing and testing of systems and providing training facilities for fire service staff and elected members."

Hefty bill to pay for sick teachers

MORE than 130 teachers in Cambridgeshire call in sick every day – leaving taxpayers with a hefty bill.

Latest figures reveal 3,050 teachers took off 26,240 days between them in the space of a year, an average of 135 each school day.

There are 4,380 teachers in the county, meaning 3 per cent are off on any one day.

While the proportion of teachers absent each day is low, union officials blame the rise in staff sickness on the stress of the job.

In Cambridgeshire, 9,180 sick days were taken as part of absences lasting for more than 20 days in total.

The Tories, who released the figures, said the rise is worrying and called on the Government to investigate the reasons behind it.

But Andrew Hutchinson, executive principal of the Parkside Federation in Cambridge, said he believed staff sickness at his two schools was falling.

He added: "Teaching can be a stressful job but this varies widely. If you are teaching, you have to be able to do what you need to do, it's not like an office where you sit behind a desk."

"It's a matter of balance, because teachers are committed to their jobs and want to make sure children do not suffer because of their absence."

Using a supply teacher costs schools from £103 to £210 a day, making the daily cost to taxpayers from current absences £20,900 if supply teachers are employed at a cost of £155 each per day.

Over a school year of 195 days, the bill would top £4 million. But the council does not know the true cost because supply teachers are employed on a school-by-school basis.

Nationwide in 2007, 15,000 teachers were off sick every day. The number of days lost to illness rose from 2.5 million in 1999 to 2.9 million in 2007.

A spokesman for Cambridgeshire County Council said: "Long term absence – 9,180 days in Cambridgeshire – equates to 34.98 per cent of all absence, which compares favourably with Oxfordshire (44.9 per cent) and Cornwall (56.9 per cent)."

"No employer can afford to be complacent about sickness management, but a certain level of absence is inevitable in organisations such as schools."

"However, we encourage schools to consider the health and well-being of staff at all times."

Cold snap care plea from social services

SUFFOLK social services is appealing for people to keep an eye out for elderly and vulnerable neighbours during the current cold spell.

As temperatures continue to remain low people in Suffolk are being asked to look out for warning signs such as mail or newspapers hanging out of the letterbox, milk bottles building up on the doorstep uncollected and curtains remaining closed throughout the day.

Anyone with any concerns at all about an elderly or vulnerable person living nearby should knock on the door to check they are alright.

The council said that if it

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

snows, check if older people can get to the shops and have what they need in the house.

Encourage people to use their heating, drop in some essential supplies or extra blankets if you can, and make sure that driveways and steps are ice free. If you have serious concerns, contact the emergency services.

The council warned that cold weather can also heighten feelings of isolation for many people who live alone, and encouraged those who live alone to contact an organisation such as Age Concern if they feel they would like to talk to someone.

Age Concern runs a number of befriending services, both face to face and via the phone.

Many community groups will also be making an extra effort to reach out to people who are alone and vulnerable over the winter period.

Cllr Graham Newman, portfolio holder for Adult and Community Services, said: "The winter period can be difficult for older, vulnerable and lonely people.

"So please keep an eye out for them, help out with small jobs if you can, make sure they are not lonely.

"We can make an important difference by taking the time to look out for those who most need our help."

Council cash for rural firms

RURAL pubs, shops and post offices are being offered grants to expand their business and provide additional community services.

The Suffolk County Council scheme provides capital grants for up to half of total eligible project costs, up to £5,000, and guidance from advisers during the application process.

It has now been extended so that pub licensees can also apply for grants to develop retail services.

Social enterprises, charities and community groups can also apply.

Lisa Chambers, Portfolio Holder for Economic and Cultural Development said: "The scheme supports villages where there is a threat of losing key rural services such as community shops, post offices and pubs."

Panto cheer can still brighten up dark nights

If you are planning an event let us know. Call Nik Shelton on (01223) 434429, fax details to (01223) 434415 or email nik.shelton@cambridge-news.co.uk

THE turkey's long gone, the tree's been taken to be recycled, and all that's left to look forward to is icy winds and dark nights...

But hold on, if you're not ready to say goodbye to the festive spirit yet, why not get yourself down to one of the many shows and pantomimes that are still gracing the area's stages?

The Cambridge Arts Theatre has built up an enviable reputation for its top-notch annual panto, and this year's Jack and the Beanstalk is no exception. The traditional show sees the return of Hollyoaks' Julie Buckfield as Jack, while Matt Crosby plays dopey sidekick Silly Billy. Expect the usual round of topical gags, riotous audience participation and some hair-raising stage stunts. The show runs until January 18.

Centre Stage Company's panto Red Riding Hood will be performed at Haverhill Arts Centre from January 23 to 31.

Tickets are available from the arts centre in the High Street, or the box office on (01440) 714140, priced at £6, £7.50 or £9, depending on the performance.

Shows are sold out on Friday January 23, at 7.30pm, and Sunday, January 25, at 2pm. Other performances are on Saturday, January 24, at 2pm and 6pm; Sunday, January 25, at 2pm; Thursday, January 29, 7.30pm; Friday, January 30, 7.30pm; Saturday, January 31, 2.30pm and Sunday, January 31, 7.30pm.

Newmarket's amateur dramatic society NOMADS is staging Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves until Saturday.

The society's panto is always popular with families and this year's follows the traditional panto format of mixing comedy and music.

Steve Beach is the dame Fatima Fandango, Pam Daish plays villain Alsatia and Sarah Styles is Ali Baba. Nearly all tickets for the production at the society's King's Theatre in Fitzroy Street, are sold out but for ticket inquiries call the box office on (01638) 663337.

Saffron Players' panto, Sinbad the Sailor and the Pyramid of Doom, a traditional family pantomime is being staged at Saffron Walden Town Hall, in the Market Place, with the first performance taking place tomorrow at 7.30pm.

It tells the story of the heroic Arabic adventurer and his battle to survive in ancient Egypt, with characters including Mark Antony, Cleopatra and her evil twin sister.

There will also be shows on Saturday, January 10, at 2.30pm and 6.30pm, a matinee on Sunday, January 11, an evening show on Friday, January 16, and matinee and evening performances on Saturday, January 17.

Tickets cost £5 and are available from Backpack, in Hill Street, Saffron Walden, on (01799) 525639.

In Haddenham, another children's favourite, The Princess and the Pea, will run at the village's Arkenstall Centre from Wednesday, January 14, until Saturday, January 17, every evening at 7.30pm.

A Saturday matinee is being held at 2.30pm and tickets, which are still to be priced, are available from Haddenham Galleries, on the High Street, every day from 11am-5pm.

The famous story of Robinson Crusoe will come to Littleport Village Hall bringing lots of up-beat songs and dances to the audience.

The Littleport Players are putting on the show from Thursday, February 26, until Saturday, February 28, at 7.30pm each evening.

There will also be a Saturday matinee at 2pm and tickets, priced at £6, can be bought by emailing rebekah.g@tesco.net or calling 07799 604209.

Jack and the Beanstalk is on at the Gordon Craig Theatre in Stevenage until January 25.

The traditional pantomime combines fairytale romance with stunning sets, beautiful costumes and, back by popular demand, a spectacular laser light show.

It stars David Spinx - Keith Miller from Eastenders - as villainous Flashcreep, and Ben Nicholas - Stingray from Neighbours - as Jack, as well as longstanding favourite Paul Laidlaw.

Tickets prices for adults and children start at £9.50.

Oh yes they are - the Centre Players are taking to the stage at the St Ivo Leisure Centre, St Ives, with their pantomime version of the classic Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

The panto runs from January 13 until January 18, but is virtually all sold out already.

A few tickets may still be available and information about them can be had by calling the leisure centre on (01480) 388500.

Treasure Island is being performed at Little Gransden Village Hall from January 16-17. Further information is available from (01767) 677989 or at www.roundabouttravellers.com

NCTJ TRAIN AS A JOURNALIST

Journalism is often seen as glamorous and exciting but, as with any occupation, success comes only after much hard work and routine activity. However, each working day as a journalist is different and the training you receive will give you the flexibility to cover a wide range of news stories and features.

Journalism draws on all the knowledge and skills you have acquired and can give you a tremendous sense of achievement. If you've got what it takes, journalism could be the career for you!

SO WHERE DO I START?

The NCTJ is the principal provider of journalism qualifications and training and offers a wide variety of training and learning options to suit everyone.

NCTJ qualifications are what editors look for when they are recruiting trainee journalists and these can be gained through full-time, part-time, distance learning or on-the-job training courses. We also offer press photography and photo-journalism training.

For further information about training as a journalist, please visit www.nctj.com where you will find details of all courses offered, locations of study and details of educational requirements.

What does 2009 hold for property market?

HAVING closed the door on 2008, it's time to reflect on what's been a historic year for property.

Potential buyers and sellers have been hit hard, struggling to secure mortgages or opting to sit tight as prices drop. Success stories have cropped up in our region, however, and many have ridden the wave and avoided disaster.

One of the new trends to have emerged in 2008 is an increase in popularity of the detached house.

Last year, Norwich and Peterborough Building Society noted that loans on detached properties increased, proving it the most popular house type. Semi-detached properties fared the worst, falling by 2.41 per cent.

However, terrace homes remained in third place. The rental market has flourished over the last year, as many would-be homeowners opted to remain in rented accommodation rather than step onto the property ladder. The introduction of the compulsory EPC (Energy Performance Certificate) aimed to make landlords and tenants more aware of their property's energy efficiency, but lettings agencies have found that most remain more influenced by location than EPC ratings. Looking to the New Year, it seems that many of the problems that began in 2008 will carry on into 2009. Pam Reardon, sales and marketing director for Redeham Homes, explains: "There will be limited change until the lending institutions release more funding to fuel the property buying market."

Fully carpeted mid-terrace

THIS three-bedroom mid-terrace property at Approach Cottages sits on the outskirts of Haverhill. The property benefits from a living/dining room, kitchen, bathroom and bedrooms. It is fully carpeted throughout and has oil fired central heating.

To the rear of the house is a large enclosed garden and on-street parking is available to the front.

This property is available to rent for £550 per calendar month, no pets.

To arrange a viewing, contact Preview Property Services on (01440) 714219.

Street-cred Mini is a cut above

IT'S pretty hard to take exception to Mini's new Convertible, writes Jonathan Crouch.

It looks (and is) sportier than the previous version, yet it's cheaper to run and more eco-friendly too. It offers more space and plenty of hi-tech features. But best of all, it's still just as much fun to drive.

One of the key aims for Mini when designing the new version of its Convertible was to offer the fun of top-down motoring without sacrificing too much in terms of space and driving dynamics.

When you remove the roof from a car, it tends to become like a jelly. To counteract this, Mini has put in a lot of hard work strengthening the rest of the car so, although it's heavier than its hard-top brother, there is little sign of the curse of convertibles – scuttle shake.

As with the fixed top MkII Mini models, the convertible ditches the old Isuzu engines and instead adopts the less characterful but more efficient units that BMW developed with Peugeot and Citroen. That means we lose the glorious supercharged whine of the old Cooper S version, but its 175bhp 1.6-litre twin scroll turbo-charged replacement makes up for that with far better fuel economy figures and emissions. Rest to 60 takes 7.4 seconds on the way to 138mph and there's 177lb ft of torque.

Go for the 120bhp 1.6-litre engine you get in the standard Cooper model and 60 takes 9.8 seconds on the way to 123mph, still quite fast enough for most, even if, with 118lb ft of torque, you'll need to rev it a bit more to properly enjoy that performance.

With a raised shoulder line the MkII Convertible has a more purposeful and dynamic stance than its predecessor. The Cooper S Convertible sets itself apart visually with the bonnet mounted air-intake, large twin tailpipes, a diffuser in the rear bumper and a two-piece rear fog lamp.

On to the roof and the automatic canvas cover of this car can be fully retracted or closed in just 15 seconds. In the event of drivers being caught out by a sudden downpour, this function will fully operate with the car at speeds of up to 20mph. As an alternative to the complete top-down driving experience, the full width of the electric roof can be retracted by about 40cm to create the effect of a sunroof at speeds of up to 75mph.

Both the Cooper and Cooper S variants are decently equipped. Look at the safety technology and you're bombarded with acronyms like assisted power steering (EPS), ABS with Electronic Brake Force Distribution (EBD), Cornering Brake Control (CBC) and Brake Assist, plus Dynamic Stability Control (DSC) – all found as standard.

For the first-time, air conditioning is fitted as standard in a Mini Convertible, though one option of dubious value will be what Mini is calling the "Openometer". This records the time spent by the owner driving with the top down. More useful however is the bike rack set-up that is supplied as standard with the mounting points hidden behind the rear bumper.

Both models feature technology from BMW's EfficientDynamics systems, so you can expect class-leading fuel efficiency, low CO2 emissions and impressive cost of ownership figures.

Basically

You could perhaps complain about the premium pricing but in truth, there's not really much more than that to put off would-be Mini Cabriolet purchasers. This car has more street-cred than its rivals and is far less gender-specific (read female-orientated) – and it's fantastic fun to drive.

Revolution for Seat in January sales

SPANISH car maker Seat is revolutionising the new car market with a set of truly stunning offers this January.

Offering specification-adjusted savings of up to £5,110 against competitors prices, the suite of deals includes a special Revolution discount of up to £2,000 off Seat list prices.

For a limited time only the Leon Stylance 1.9 TDI 105 PS, is offered at £13,220 – down from the previous price of £15,220.

Other offers are applied to the Altea Stylance 1.9 TDI, all-wheel drive Altea Freetrack 4 2.0 TSI, Altea XL Stylance 1.9 TDI, Alhambra Stylance 2.0 TDI and eco-friendly Ibiza Ecomotive 1.4 TDI.

Exeo saloon due in April

PRICING and full specification details for Seat's all-new Exeo saloon, released this week, confirm that the Spanish upper medium segment contender will be a class leader when it arrives in showrooms in the spring.

Available from £17,740, the elegant five-seat saloon promises premium quality and exceptional levels of standard equipment, alongside a healthy dose of Seat's trademark sporting character.

The firm has confirmed that its luxurious Latin newcomer, due to go on sale here in April, will be offered in S, SE, Sport and range-topping SE Lux trim levels, with an initial choice of three outstanding engines.

All Euro V-compliant, the powerplant selection include a brace of hi-tech common rail turbodiesels producing 141bhp or 168bhp, as well as a potent 197bhp turbocharged petrol. They are all mated, as Front fog lamps, electrically adjustable and heated door mirrors, electric windows all round and colour-coded door handles and mirrors are also standard on every Exeo.

Step up to the Exeo SE and buyers can look forward to rear parking sensors, automatic lights and wipers, auto-dimming rear view mirror, leather steering wheel and gearknob, and an acoustic windscreen among the standard features.

As well as the equipment found in SE spec cars, Exeo Sport buyers naturally benefit from the likes of sports suspension, sports seats and stylish 18-inch alloys, while those who opt for the range-topping SE Lux will enjoy black leather upholstery and bi-xenon headlights with AFS among their standard-fit kit.

Safety and security are comprehensively catered for as ESP and EBA are universal features, likewise active front head restraints, rear-seat ISOFIX points with Top Tether, six airbags, volumetric alarm with tilt sensor and remote central locking.

standard, to a six-speed manual gearbox and all endow the Exeo with spirited performance.

At launch, the new Seat saloon's 0 to 62mph times range from 9.2 seconds (for the 141bhp TDI) through 8.4 seconds (167bhp TDI) to a distinctly spirited 7.3 seconds for the 197bhp TSI petrol-powered version. Maximum speeds, where legal, are 133mph, 142mph and 149mph respectively.

Fuel economy and exhaust emissions, both important considerations for private and business buyers alike in today's straitened circumstances, are commendable. Depending on engine, the Exeo is capable of up to 51.4mpg (on the combined cycle) with an official CO2 emissions figure of as little as 143g/km.

Among the equipment highlights guaranteed to appear across the new range are USB connectivity (allowing MP3 music players to be used in-car); cruise control; steering wheel-mounted audio controls; dual zone climate control and stylish alloy wheels.

eco:Drive is instant success

FIGURES just released by Fiat show that thousands of using motorists who have been of the fuel-saving advice device since its launch in October, have already saved more than 163,000kg of CO₂.

Launched by Fiat at the 2008 Paris Motor Show, eco:Drive is a free-of-charge tool that helps drivers understand the impact of their driving style on fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions.

Using a USB stick plugged into the car's dashboard, eco:Drive records detailed information about the vehicle and how it is driven, which can be uploaded on to a computer. It then gives an analysis of the driver's performance, along with suggestions on how to improve efficiency further by improving driving methods.

"eco:Drive offers real benefits, helping drivers to improve their driving efficiency, saving fuel and reducing their impact on the environment," says Andrew Humberstone, managing director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK.

Drivers using eco:Drive can become part of eco:Ville, an environmentally-friendly on-line community. Members have used it to offer ideas and feedback over the last three months, which Fiat has responded to - already the company has released four enhanced versions of the system.

This year eco:Drive will become available for use in the Fiat Bravo and Qubo - It already features in Fiat 500 and Grande Punto models - and there are plans to further introduce the technology across the entire car range.

Fiat drivers can download eco:Drive free of charge at www.fiat.co.uk/ecodrive

GIVE YOUR CAR A WINTER WORKOUT WITH THE RMIF

The onset of winter can be bad news for motorists. Little light, bad weather and worse roads conspire to make driving tiring, unpleasant, and sometimes even dangerous.

Every journey is an opportunity to prevent the worst from happening, and there is a great deal of preventative action that you can undertake yourself.

Before setting off:

make sure that the car has enough fuel let someone know your intended movements listen to traffic news and weather forecasts, and wear warm clothing.

Naturally, the need for seasonal preparation also extends to the various systems that run the car, so make sure that the anti-freeze in the car is fresh. Insufficient or 'old' anti-freeze can cause hose, water pump or other major units to fail leading to overheating. Anti-freeze should be changed every two years due to the deterioration of the corrosion inhibitors, or according to manufacturer recommendations.

Other things to do include:

make sure the battery is in good condition on cold mornings use a de-icer on windows, or a scraper - NEVER hot water check that the screen wash is not clogged and that the bottle is topped up for use, and make sure that an additive is used to stop it freezing check windscreen wipers for wear and replace them if necessary make sure that all heaters and ventilation systems are working so that misting is minimised give all external lights and mirrors a thorough clean headlamps should be correctly aligned the tread depth should be at least 1.6mm across the central three-quarters of the breadth of the tread and around the entire circumference, and there should be no cuts or cracks spray damp inhibitor into the door locks to prevent seizing up.

Once the car is ready for winter, you should make sure it is carrying emergency equipment so that, if the worst happens, you are ready too.

Useful supplies could include: torch, spare batteries and bulbs, screen scraper / de-icer, jump leads, warning triangle, first-aid kit, 'hands free' mobile phone / phone card / cash, blankets and warm jacket / robust shoes (in case of breakdown), shovel (to clear snow if necessary), fire extinguisher, rope (for towing if necessary), road atlas, maps etc.

Essentially, safety in the winter comes down to four things: 1. Check your car. 2. Be prepared for anything. 3. Be cautious. 4. Monitor your speed.

If you try to follow these rules you should find yourself on the road to safe winter driving. To make sure your car is ready for the road in the first place, book your car in for a service. Careful preparation by the motorist can only go so far.

To find a reliable garage, motorists should look to the RMIF.

A member will be able to advise you on the type of service you need, and will be able to point out potential problem areas before they arise, or become serious. In fact, whether you want to buy or sell a new or used car or motorcycle, service or repair your existing vehicle, find an auction house, or a cherished number plate dealer, the RMIF will be able to help you.

If you have a complaint against an RMIF member garage, the RMIF's National Conciliation Service should be able to help you get redress, if the problem cannot be solved in direct consultation with that member.

To find a garage that is a member of the RMIF visit www.rmif.co.uk and use the 'Find a Service' function. You will also find details of RMIF members that sell new and used cars or motorcycles, provide vehicle servicing and repair, and sell petrol.

Motorists can also use the RMIF Consumer Motorline - 08457 58 53 50

This will enable you to find all RMIF members mentioned above, and in addition vehicle auctioneers and cherished number plate dealers.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Lingard on target to ditch leaders

Grampian Gunners U11 2
Walpole Warriors U11 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

ALTHOUGH the pitch was frozen and the air temperature at -2C, the football was red hot as Gunners played host to the league leaders.

Grampian attacked Walpole from the start, Jason Moore and Mitchell Forshaw orchestrating passes through midfield to Jack Ferguson and Jamie Lingard, who supplied a steady stream of shots and crosses into the box.

Walpole's defence coped well and set up their front men, who were dangerous on the break, testing Grampian keeper Lewis Knightly several times.

Lingard then curled in a corner at pace, which hit a defender as it crossed the line.

The second half saw Walpole come out all guns blazing, but Grampian's Aaron Thorne, Bailey Cassidy and George Mustoe, who cleared off the line, defended brilliantly.

When Grampian stopped, expecting a free kick, the referee played advantage and an alert striker poked home for Walpole's equaliser. Gunners responded as Josh Mathewson won possession to pass to Ferguson, who released Lingard to hit the winner.

Cherry Hinton Lions U10B 1
Grampian Gunners U10 A 4

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10A

GUNNERS started very slowly on a hard and frosty pitch, but competed well to create half chances for Halls, Robson and Woodley before Lions scored just before half time.

The second half started much better for Gunners with Thompson scoring two quick goals, after which they controlled the game. Further goals from Henderson and Westley tightened their grip at 4-1.

Despite having further chance to increase their advantage, with Grace particularly unlucky not to score, Gunners could not add to their tally.

Lions had a chance late on, but Gunners' keeper Fletcher produced a fine save.

Aztecs Juniors U10A 3
Spartak 78 U10B 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10B

AZTECS started the New Year in fine style with a fine victory.

Despite the cold conditions, the home side made a bright start and the visitors' goalkeeper was kept busy in the early stages.

The deadlock was broken midway through the first half when Alastair Green powered past two defenders and slipped the ball through to Tyler Thurgood, who beat the keeper to notch his 18th goal of the season for Aztecs.

Spartak responded with some counter-attacking play and twice forced the hosts' goalkeeper, Ben Linsdell, to race out and clear the ball to safety when one-on-one with the visitors' front line.

However, it was the home side that scored again just before half time when William Savill slammed home a rebound following an initial shot from Callum Hayes.

Spartak started the second half by laying siege to the Aztecs' goal.

The home defensive pairing of Tom Howard and Ben Paterson were solid until the visitors pulled a goal back.

An equaliser looked certain until keeper Linsdell produced a fine double save.

Aztecs sealed the points with a strike from Toby Goodship.

CRICKET STAR REFLECTS ON HIS MIXED YEAR AND LOOKS AHEAD TO 2009

Fitness
first as Westley aims to impress

■ STUDENT LIFE . . . Tom Westley hopes to turn out for his university against Essex.

AFTER entering the world of higher education, Tom Westley is hoping to hit the heights in the cricketer world again during the coming season.

It would be fair to say the Weston Colville youngster enjoyed a year of two halves in 2008.

The first part of the year saw the batting all-rounder captain England at the Under-19s World Cup in Malaysia and then lead his side to victory over New Zealand in both the test and one-day international arena.

He was also continuing to impress Essex coach Graham Gooch and making appearances in the first team for his county.

But picking up a groin injury in the latter part of the year has left the 19-year-old prodigy feeling blue, as he fights to regain full fitness ahead of the forthcoming pre-season.

■ MICHAEL VAUGHTON
Cricketer writer

And having started studying for a sports science degree at Durham University in September, he is determined to put the smile back on his face in 2009.

Westley said: "I've had to have a couple of operations and I have not been able to pick up a cricket bat or been able to sprint for the last few months.

"I was due to fly out to India soon to be part of the World Cricket Academy and get more coaching and experience, but that's fallen through because of the injury.

"So it's been the quietest time of my cricketing career, but I've got to make sure I'm fit and prepared for Essex's pre-season tour to Dubai, and I aim to be back in training by the end of January."

Westley, who still managed to turn out for Saffron Walden in the Shepherd Neame Essex League, Premier Division last season, despite his county and international commitments, hopes to play against his county for Durham UCCE in early spring.

After seeing left-handed batsmen Matt Walker and John Maunders arrive at the Ford County Ground from Kent and Leicestershire respectively, the teenager knows he has a fight on his hands to become an Essex regular.

But he thinks the good experiences he had in the summer with England Under-19s can help him in the battle. Westley said: "The World Cup was an amazing experience, and captaining the Under-19s was excellent and a great honour.

"I'd started the season well for Essex, but then I started to pick up injuries and so the year definitely had its highs and lows.

"Quite a few people who've played for Essex have studied at Durham, like James Foster, Tim Phillips and Will Jefferson.

"I'm hoping to play against the county for the UCCE side in pre-season and I want to impress because there's going to be a lot of competition for places this season.

"But if I can do well in that match and put in a good performance, as well as getting myself fit for the tour in Dubai, then hopefully I can push on again."

FOOTBALL

held up in freeze

HAVERHILL Rovers' hopes of picking up points in their quest to haul themselves away from the foot of the Ridgeons League, Premier Division table had to be put on hold on Saturday.

Their scheduled fixture, away to mid-table Stanway Rovers was one of several league matches that fell victim to the freezing weather conditions that gripped the country. Rovers manager Peter Betts and his team will now be hoping that conditions are favourable when they take on high-riding Kirkley & Pakefield at Hamlet Croft on Saturday.

With Haverhill seven points adrift at the bottom, it is becoming increasingly more important that they find a winning formula and start to pick up points, even against a side, like Kirkley, who are currently occupying sixth spot in the table.
